

NEWS ADVISORY

County of Los Angeles

Contact: Judy Hammond, Director of Public Affairs, (213) 974-1363
Victoria Pipkin, Assistant Director, (213) 974-1652
Live videofeed, English and Spanish, Telco #948075
Audio—(213) 974-4700

Board of Supervisors -- Sept. 9 Agenda Highlights

9:30 a.m.

Amendments proposed for spending funds received from City of Industry for low and moderate income housing within 15 miles of the city. (Item 1H)

First step proposed in selecting developer to purchase, develop and operate a 300-unit housing project in Willowbrook. (Item 3-H)

Sierra Madre asks to transfer funds earmarked for acquiring natural foothill areas to construct youth activity center. (Item 1P)

Feasibility study requested for providing law enforcement agencies free access to County's geographic database. (Item 10)

Supervisor Michael D. Antonovich, reacting to reports that County spends millions of dollars paying employees on administrative leave, asks County policy be adopted. (Item 11)

Proposal calls for providing $2 million to the District Attorney's Office to pay for Rampart investigative costs. (Item 16)

Marina del Rey lease amendment would increase rent due County. (Item 19)

Homeowner association offers to donate $17,500 to repair whale-watching site at Zuma Beach. (Item 20)

Reduction proposed in fire tax rate, saving property owners $3.3 million. (Item 22)

Earthquake repairs recommended at County+USC Medical Center Crematory. (Item 27)

Board asked to reject all bids for the proposed Eastlake Court entry closure project and set new bid opening date for Oct. 9 (Item 28)

Seven grade separation projects recommended. (Item 34)

Board asked to allow Sheriff's Department to use marked police vehicles at designated street intersections to solicit funds for charity. (Item 41)

Strategic plan for child care and development proposed. (Item 43)

Company recommended for disbarment for allegedly placing ads in behalf of the County and not paying for them and accepting money for ads it never placed. (Item 45)

Department of Children and Family Services reports on efforts to create an efficient case file and retrieval system and feasibility of conducting audit of state requirement that every social worker enter each case into a computer database. (Item 49)